

Back-to-School Series: OTAN YouTube Channel

Posted on 08/27/2018

This is the fourth in a series of news items that will provide information about essential features of OTAN for you to know as you and your colleagues begin the new school year.

Today's news item highlights OTAN's YouTube Channel. First, please consider subscribing to our YouTube channel to stay connected to the latest OTAN developments: <https://www.youtube.com/otanservesadulthoodeducation>. You can also connect to our channel (and all our social media sites) from the OTAN website: <https://www.otan.us/>. Look for the social media icons in the upper right-hand corner of the homepage.

OTAN has long utilized video to provide information and highlight important events in adult education. Moving forward, we hope to provide even more timely information for the field through video posted on our channel. Current highlights on our YouTube channel include:

- Final reports by each of the eight teams who participated in the first cohort of our Digital Leadership Academy
- Recordings of our monthly OTAN Tech Talks
- Presentations from our annual Technology and Distance Learning Symposium
- Spotlight on our Teaching with Technology tool and other tech integration topics (e.g., using ePortfolios)

Subscribe to our YouTube channel and stay connected to OTAN! We will also let you know about new content on our channel via Twitter and Facebook. We look forward to providing you exciting ed tech content throughout the school year!

Coming up next: OTAN curriculum offers