

Take Advantage of OTAN Curriculum Offers

Posted on 01/07/2019

As the new year begins, OTAN wants to remind you about curriculum offers available to adult education teachers who work at WIOA-funded agencies in California. OTAN works to negotiate the best free or reduced-cost special offers for online curriculum licenses and professional development resources suggested by our OTAN Advisory Committee and adult educators in the field. These are our current offers.

- Essential Education – If you are interested in teaching online but don't know where to start, consider signing up for this self-paced Blended Learning course. More information and sign up on this webpage: Essential Ed curriculum offer
- Learn360 – Adult educators have access to about 150,000 multimedia resources, including audio and video files, images, articles, worksheets, interactives, and more. These can be used in class or in online platforms like Google Classroom and Moodle. More information and sign up on this webpage: Learn360 curriculum offer
- NROC – OTAN is a partner with the NROC Project to provide access to online Developmental English and Developmental Math courses, EdReady which can be used to customize learning pathways for students and classes, and HippoCampus, a curated repository with resources in math, science, social science, and humanities subjects. More information and sign up on this webpage: NROC curriculum offer
- Revolution English – Our newest curriculum offer, Revolution English is offering free pilots for ESL students to practice learning English on their phones or other mobile devices outside of the classroom. More information and sign up on this webpage: Revolution English curriculum offer

Please contact OTAN if you have any questions about these curriculum offers at support@otan.us or by phone at 916-228-2580. Please take advantage of any of these curriculum offers!
